"We have, through the constant use, for some time post, of the QUINIUM WINE; seen truly marvellous effects produced by it. We have therefore no hesitation in saying that Cornion is, in our opinion, the most efficacions and the most active tonic bi-therto known. 'Chief Physician at the Cherchell Hospital. 'Seronty fevers treated with Labarra-QUE'S QUINIUM WINE were all removed with the third dose. Not one single person who made use of it as a preventive c ntracted any fever during his residence in a fever country. .

Dr. HUDELLET, 'Chief Physician of the Buspitals.'

QUINITM WINE is not therefore merely a precentive and a febrifuge; it is also one of the best tonics that can be employed to wrestle with constitutional debility. LIBARRAQUE'S QUINIUM is very efficacious in the cure of intermittent fevers and reconstitution of the animal economy. It is an excellent remedy.

> THE Tonkin papers which arrived yesterday contain news of serious disturbances. Oho Bo, on the banks of the Black River, was surprised on the night of the 28th and 29th January by a band of 500 rebels, and plundered and burned. The French Resident, who had only 40 native militiamen under him, was shot and decapitated, and two other French officials were killed. The rest of the Europeans managed to escape, some by swimming across the river and others by hiding in the bushes. The FATHER Benetti met with a rather severe socident yesterday afternoon. He was travelling in a ricksha in the direction of the Race-course. Running down Morrison Hill; the coolie lost control of the rickship, and when he got to the foot, as he was endesvonring to turn towards the Race-Course, the vehicle capsized, throwing Father Benetti with great force against the monument. The Reverend gentleman's thigh was broken and he had to be taken to the Civil Hospital. The coolie, on picking himself up, made off as fast as he could with his rickaha, leaving his fare to look after himself. Unfortunately the number of the ricksha is not known, and there is little chance of bringing the coolie to justice.

THE amazzinsticn of Mr and Mrs Keeble

in Tonkin is put down by the local paper as a pure case of highway robbery. Mr Keeble, it is said, was indiscreet enough to let it be known that he had a pretty large sum of money on him, while Mrs Keeble wore all her jewels. The robbers hid themselves behind bushes about 20 yards from the road. Mr and Mrs Keeble were travelling in a ricksha, and as the ricksha passed the hiding place the robbers fired. Mr Keeble was hit by two or three balls and fell. Mrs Keeble threw herself on the body of her husband. The robbers fired again and two balls penetrated her chest. Rushing out of the bushes the robbers, to make doubly sure of their victim fired several shots straight into Mr Keeble's body. The baggage was then plundered.

THE Foochow Etho says :- We regret to hear from Fuhning that the Rev. H. M. Eyton Jones of the C. M. S. at the above station has met with a somewhat serious accident while out riding, having been thrown from his horse and broken his arm. The accident having occurred close to the C. M. S. Hospital at Buhning the Revd. gentleman was taken there and his injuries immediately stiended to by Dr Taylor. Full particulars are not yet to hand, but we terdicted at the third representation at the understand that the patient was doing well Comedie Franciae on account of demon- when the list news left.

Some Hitle time back we predicted that I'e exceedingly pretty, and the profusion days of Port Arthur as a naval station were numbered, despite the vast amount of money which the Chinese have spent in fortifying and laying out the place, a pr cess from which the French Syndicate derived the chief benefit. Now we find our native contemporaries following us, and pointing out the far greater advantages as a naval depôt offered by Wei-hni-wei. This place has a much better har our than Port Arthur, and is far more protected naturally. There is besides a naval school at: Wel-hatwei, which is also within a convenient distance from Chefoo and has communication every seven days, by a gunboat, with Tientain. - Sha ghai Mercury.

THE Japan Gazette says :- The total number of students in the Imperial University at present is 1,365 Of these 47 have graduated and are studying for honours. Among undergraduates there are 305 studying law, 216 Medicine, 109 Engineering, 89 Literature, 109 Science, 490 Agriculture. It will be observed that the proportion of Law students is as usual very large, much more so than is desirable. The number of students of Agriculture appears large compared with those pursuing other subjects, but since the Agricultural College has lately been incorporated into the Un versity, these figures are somewhat misleading. They represent the number of students at the Agricultural College when it existed as a separate institution and when those desirous of entering the college were subjected to no such preliminary examinations as they will hence. Itlemen present, with the characters forth be required to pass.'

REMARKABLE instance of the estimation may in some measure furnish a skele in which 'Feng Shui' is held by Chinese, re-erection of an entire row of houses in gayest spectacle of the kind ever seen is evidenced by the entire demolition and Roochow near the Dairy. It would appear this part of the world. It would be that owing to an undue amount of sickness possible to describe the scene with gated that there was something wrong with making what might seem to be invidithe 'Feng Shul' and a protest was issued distinctions. There was no lack of bri to the landlord demanding an enquiry into colouring or of neutral and seath cromancer were retained, doubtless at the shades, apart even from the blue of the matter. The services of a local neexpense of a considerable fee, who after Navy, the scarlet of the Military, consultion with the usual au horities, and the mixed searlet and green of the Ar employing the-to foreigners absurd-customary methods, arrived at the conclusion that in view of the aspect of the houses was exceedingly well harmonised, directly facing Kushan, sickness and bad although the comical element poor luck were but natural, and indeed, necessary consequences. barque Charley over turning up again are od in their movements, and dancing so remote that we may now almost give her up as lost. She left Nagasaki on the 8th kept up until the call for supper. Jan, with a full cargo of coals for Shanghai supper, which was served in the new and nothing has been heard of her since. The vessel, which was built on the Weser, in Germany in 1864, was originally called room, dancing was remmed, and conti the Siam, and sailed at first under the until the small hour . Hanseatic flag of Bremen. She was built of the strongest materials and was considered a capital sailer. Some years ago it | Mrs Ackr. yd. was thought that the was lost in a typhoon outside Shanghai, but she was afterwards Mrs J. M. S. Alves. picked up and brought into port by a local pilot. She was sold and put under the American flag and flor name changed to Charley. Her career since then has teen checkered. She went aground to the west of the mouth of the Newchwang River, and the captain who shortly afterwards arrived in the bean-cake port, reported her lost. But the very next day the Charley was brought up by a Newchwang pilot, Mr Sinclair, if we are not mistaken, and she was afterwards put up for sale and "transferred to the British flag, under which she has sailed successfully ever since for the Shanghai Shipping Company, Lest epring she was docked and overhauled, and was valued at some . ten or twelve thousand taels .- Shanghai Mercury.

CHINA, we believe, is at last determined to adopt a total change of currency, at least the steps taken by the authorities at Foochow during the last two months lead us to believe that such is their intention. The latest of the numerous prodismations on this subject, is one that prohibits the circulation of a certain kind of bank note which is called Sh'ang-pin (城梁). These notes it is said are circulated and used with the understanding that twenty per cent of the change is to be of broken cash; as their currency will upset previous proclamations prohibiting the use of spurious cash, the authorities have wisely notified the banks that from the first of the second moon, the use of such notes is totally prohibited, and if any bankers dare to issue, or fails to call in, all such notes in circulation during the period mentioned, they shall be arrested and punished. Though this change should be highly praised, we fear the measures ere taken too late, for the trade, the people, and indeed the country in general, is in too decaying a state to stand or appreciate such an innovation. It is very hard for a man who is accustomed to an exchange of 1,360 each for a dollar, to only receive 1,020 ! In these hard times the loss will no doubt be very serious. As is always the case with the Chinese government, nothing is done in good time in order to save ruin to the people. As an instance, the Tes trade of Foochow, the collapse of which might have been averted, if advice or suggestions of merchants had been adopted in time, but no notice has as yet been taken, and the longpredicted result, due entirely to utter negligence, is now fast being realised. - Foothow

THE FANCY DRESS BALL AT

GOVERNMENT HOUSE. The much-talked-of and long-looked-for Francy Dress Ball at Government Housewhich had been unfortunately twice postponed on account of sickness in the Governor's family-took place last night. Heralded by telegram at the earliest stage of the jubilee preparations, this assembly now comes in as a most striking after-effect to the celebrations in conection with the Colony's Jubilee. Notwithstanding the very cold, though seasonable, weather, the gathering was large and successful. As the occasion was availed of to inaugurate the new Ball-room at Government House, considerable interest was felt over the resolt; and it goes without saying that every thing which good taste could suggest in the Mrs Robinson. way of decoration was done. Facing the bliss Robinson, gateway on entering was placed a gas Miss Ryrie, device 1841-1891 with the usual loyal accompaniments, while the grounds were enlivered and beautified by festoons of Mrs Storer, Chinese lanterns. FORMOSA. (From an Occasional Correspondent.) OPENING OF THE BAILWAY.

5th February, 1891. The enemies of the Governor have just suffered keen disappointment, as his last sion to resign has been graciously disallow- | treaty. ed, although the Governor has been granted a further term of leave to be spent at his post. The doores was a telegraphic one, and its general tone is said to be highly favourable. This happening after the decease of the Governor's patron, Prince Chun, is taken as a sign that notwithstanding past errors and shortcomings, the tough old warrior who kept the French out of Formosa still stands high in the Imperial favour and regard. Indeed it admits no contradiction that H. E. Liu Ming. chuan is the proper man to hold the rein of the Formosan Government.

There is now a regular train running between the City of Taipeh and a place within one hour's walk from Kelung. This long expected privilege was joyfully chin-chinned Marlborough House. by the residents at that port, who, on the thrown the body out of the window and they think this would be successful. eventful day, drank champagne to their had carried it away. ITHIS Review, which was intended to meet 1. the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, his reached its Eighteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, GALVESTON & SOUTH AMERICAN and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, of Lading for the principal places in the Magazine would be mademore generally Bown, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that 'Notes' and 'Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary real to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support measure to beautiful and its the China Review its continuation.
